• Cornell Fine Arts Museum, Rollins College – Avatar conducted a $15 million capital campaign. The funding sources included Federal, State of Florida and private-sector gifts/grants. Rollins College was able to advance a successful capital campaign for a new facility and grow the museum's endowment. At the same time we secured $1 million for the Sun Trust Auditorium.

Avatar's senior partner advanced a $125 million capital campaign for Florida's largest museum Avatar Company has been a nonprofit sector consultancy since 1978

• Friends of Mead Garden, Winter Park, FL Avatar conducted a capital campaign feasibility study, secured funding from a community foundation used to enhance the organization's campaign readiness and sustainability, and produced a strategic plan supported by funding programs for each goal. The City of Winter Park owns the botanical garden and is governed by a private-sector board of directors 501(c)(3) and funded by public/private sector funds including grants.

• Boca Raton Museum of Art and School Avatar provided strategic planning, capital campaign feasibility study and campaign management services to the museum/art school including a $2 million Kresge Foundation award with a 1:1 match component and three public sector grants totaling $4.5 million with match. The $22 million dollar new facility is located on city property and the old facility was renovated and programed as an art school producing substantial earned income for the new museum facility's operations. The project was 50% over goal and the excess was used to create a multi million dollar endowment.

 Naples Art Association/Von Liebig Art Center Avatar provided strategic planning, feasibility study and campaign management services to support a $20 million dollar initiative on city property as part of a downtown revitalization program. At the conclusion of the successful campaign Avatar conducted several strategic planning retreats designed to financially sustain the organization in its new facility governed by a private sector board of directors. Avatar went on to produce a highly successful capital campaigns for a downtown theatre and adjacent botanical garden.

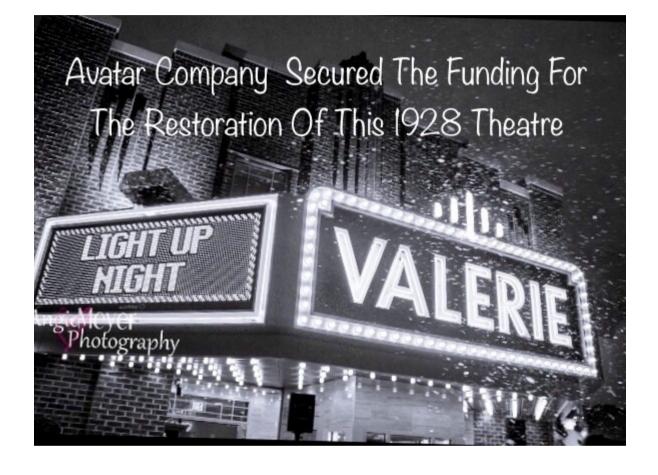

• Naples Sugden Theatre Avatar provided planning and campaign management services for a $20 million dollar theatre initiative on city property, conducted a mission/program compatibility/campaign planning research study, designed the case-for-support and related print/electronic campaign materials, researched potential grants business and family foundation grantmakers and produced $4.5 million in grants with match. The theatre is governed by a private sector board of directors.

• Armory Art Center, West Palm Beach, FL Avatar conducted a comprehensive internal/external assessment of the center's funding programs, designed, implement and provided staff/board training in fundraising program administration. Avatar was also retained to conduct a comprehensive strategic planning study and plan.

 PBS/NPR Washington DC Avatar developed and administered multi-million dollar fundraising programs that included membership, annual giving, sponsorship, several major special events, grants and deferred giving for both Public Broadcast Stations including budget planning and development. Avatar's programs were nationally awarded by the Corporation for Public Broadcasting.

• Valarie Theatre, Inverness, FL Avatar identified and secured funding sources for the renovation of the historic 1928 Valarie Theatre into a community performing arts space. The facility is owned and operated by the City of Inverness.

• ISKCON Foundation, Mayapur India Avatar provided feasibility and campaign readiness services for a $150 million international project including strategic planning for a project in India.
